

ARE YOU PREGNANT AND UNSURE WHAT TO DO?

An unexpected or unplanned pregnancy can be stressful and confusing.

Lutheran Counseling and Family Services of Wisconsin is dedicated to helping women who are seeking more information about adoption. Our birth options counselor is available to help discuss all the services available to you, whether it be identifying programs to assist in caring for your child, or creating an adoption plan. Our agency will work with you in a respectful and caring way to make sure you make the best choice possible for yourself and your child.

To learn more about our confidential and free services, please call (414)536-8333 or text (414)750-4263 to talk with our birth options counselor and adoption coordinator. If you prefer email, we can be reached at adoption@lcfswi.org or by completing a contact form here.

Here's what we can promise you:

- 1. To provide you with options that are best for you and your baby.
- 2. To support you without pressure or bias.
- 3. To provide loving families for your consideration.
- 4. To make available any professional counseling you may need.
- 5. To listen, to understand, to care.

Adoption is a decision you shouldn't have to make alone. Let's talk.
